Trenton, NJ – November 19, 2024 - Millhill Child and Family Development is thrilled to announce its partnership with the West Trenton Garden Club to revitalize the entrance area of its campus, creating a welcoming space for children, families, and the community.

"It's wonderful when two things we love come together, gardening and civic engagement." said Anne Skalka, Millhill Board Member and President of the West Trenton Garden Club "I've been involved with Millhill for many years because it represents the power of community and the value of building strong relationships. The gardening projects of the West Trenton Garden Club embody this belief and it's so much fun! Special thanks to Devah Brinker, George McElrath, Iliana Okum, Rick Lazarick, and Victoria Rivera-Cruz for their hard work and dedication.

"We're grateful for the West Trenton Garden Club's enthusiasm and expertise," said Millhill Executive CEO, Jigna Rao. "Together, we're creating a beautiful and inviting space that reflects our commitment to the community."

About The West Trenton Garden Club

The West Trenton Garden Club, Inc., was established in 1953 to share the love of gardening, the principles of flower design and encouraging civic improvement with its members and the community. <https://westtrentongc.org/about-us.html>
