

Who We Are

At Millhill Child and Family Development, our nonprofit organization has been servicing a diverse Trenton community for more than 50 years.

- Children: Providing nurturing environments and early childhood education
- Youth: Offering programs that promote academic success and personal development
- Families: Strengthening family bonds and providing resources for better parenting

Our programs are designed to address the diverse needs of our community, catering to various age groups and focusing on different aspects of personal development. From early childhood education and after-school enrichment to family support services and mental health counseling, we strive to provide a well-rounded approach that helps our clients overcome challenges and reach their full potential.
